

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in recognition of the importance of the livestock industry within the national economy and that of the State of South Dakota, as well as the vital contribution of its products to the well-being of the people of South Dakota and of the nation; and

WHEREAS, the marketing of livestock is increasingly considered one of the most critical factors in the stability and profitability of the livestock and meat industry; and

WHEREAS, the competitive livestock market businesses located throughout the State of South Dakota and the nation have, as their business purpose the providing of marketing services and facilities designed to produce profitable returns for livestock buyers and sellers; and

WHEREAS, the broadest possible understanding of the nature and scope of those services is in the best interests of our state and national livestock and meat economy; and

WHEREAS, the competitive Livestock Markets Council, representing the business interests involved in the nation's competitive markets, in conjunction with the South Dakota Livestock Markets Association, has undertaken, during the month of June, 1968, an industry-wide effort to fully acquaint all livestock buyers and sellers with those services:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of June, 1968, to be recognized as--

by all citizens of the State of South Dakota, and urge all within our livestock and meat industry to familiarize themselves during that time with the services of South Dakota's competitive livestock markets industry.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 31 day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and sixty-eight.
